

Absolu

Francesco Binfaré

General description:

A distinct sofa. Normal, extraordinary, timeless ... Absolutely the best because it is enhanced with what we call movable "smart" cushions, pliable to preference with slight movements to satisfy any possible desire for comfort.

A padded sofa with high style, designed to withstand time and trends.

Seats have different shapes, sizes and depths to satisfy every desire of comfort

A large smart cushion that you can move to any socket of the backrest and armrest.

A cushion that you can raise, lower, tilt separately to the left or right with a light and pleasant movement.

The various elements that can be combined with each other and are also available with different depths, allow to achieve linear, angular or curvy compositions, for every need and use.

The version "Absolu Large" has broader dimensions both in width and in depth.

The deeper seat offers the possibility of extreme and casual comfort, both for classic sitting and for a freer use of the couch.

Use:

From the most classic to the most generous sizes, to offer maximum comfort, individually or for many people.

The smart cushion is easy to move, use and shape in different positions.

With a simple movement, you can go from a classic sofa to the position of chaise longue, always obtaining the maximum comfort.
